

Bequest Intention in your Will

Donor would like to make a substantial gift to UMS-Wright, but doesn't have sufficient assets to provide a large gift during their lifetime because of concerns regarding health costs or other potential unknown costs. A bequest allows the donor to make a substantial gift, often many times their capacity during their lifetime. Please be sure to provide appropriately for spouse and children first.